

Conscious Water usage on Campus

Students and staff are being oriented on the conscious use of water through lectures and display boards placed across the campus. These initiatives emphasize the importance of mindful water consumption and encourage individuals to pay attention to their everyday actions that involve both clean and recycled water. The goal is to foster a culture of sustainability where everyone is aware of their role in conserving water and minimizing waste, both in personal habits and campus -wide activities.

